FOCUS ON PAUL SCHRADER

15 & 20 Sep First Reformed p. 8

25 Sep The Walker p. 11

2 Oct Taxi Driver p. 14

Paul Schrader is one of those names which we probably should all know better. With the release of his new eagerly anticipated film First Reformed, what better time than now to showcase some of his excellent contributions to cinema? The Walker, released in 2007 is exquisitely shot with strong performances from Woody Harrelson, Kristin Scott Thomas and Lauren Bacall. Taxi Driver, written by Paul Schrader and oft cited by some as one of cinema's all time greatest films, is definitely one not to be missed on the big-screen.

THEATRE MANAGER'S TOP PICKS

14 Sep Under the Tree p. 7

15 Oct Path of Blood p. 18

31 Oct The Shining p. 25

Choosing a favourite or top three of anything is no easy task, so this list is not necessarily my absolute top picks.

HITCHCOCK ANNIVERSARIES

31 Oct FAMILY PLOT: 40 years ago p. 24

3 Nov THE BIRDS: 55 year anniversary p. 27

14 Nov VERTIGO: 60 year anniversary p. 30

Hitchcock's distinctive films remain as pleasurable and impactful to watch as ever. So, with the 60th anniversary re-release of his masterpiece Vertigo, we thought we would bring you a couple of other Hitchcock anniversaries worth celebrating. Rolling forward to 55 years ago, we find the release of the chilling The Birds, ... the same year that Strode Theatre opened its doors! Fast forward another fifteen years, and Hitchcock's last film Family Plot was first shown here at Strode Theatre on 31st October 1978. Enjoy!

FILM ON MUSIC

17 Oct Ryuichi Sakamoto: Coda p. 19

2 Nov One Note at a Time p. 26

13 Nov 4 p. 30

Quite simply, three films about music. First off is Ryuichi Sakamoto: Coda - fans of Merry Christmas Mr Lawrence will recall Sakamoto's brilliant score. One Note at a Time is the touching and fascinating human story of the restoration of music back to post-Katrina New Orleans. Finally, "4" is a beautifully shot and captivating insight behind the scenes into lives and relationships of renowned quartet Quatuor Ebène while on tour in Italy. Three excellent documentary films, all highly recommended.
